

This is a discussion that affects every American, and I hope the national dialog will help to educate us all about the pros and cons of the options out there.

We understand the problem. We just do not know what the best solution is yet, and I think that that ought to be at the top of our agenda. I think it is clear from those of us who went home and took the pulse that America is ready for bold change. It is time to stop fooling around at the edges of some of these systems and start constructing new systems that are fairer and more efficient. Everybody I talked to one way or the other, when we got on the subject of taxation, said, "How about a better deal with our taxes? How about a system that we can understand?"

Well, Madam Speaker, how about it? As we tackle the budget process, can we include tax reform? I think the people we work for have asked us to do that, and I can see no reason at all why we should not. So how about it? Let us take on tax reform.

RECESS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 12 of rule I, the Chair declares the House in recess until 2 p.m.

Accordingly (at 12 o'clock and 37 minutes p.m.), the House stood in recess until 2 p.m.

□ 1400

AFTER RECESS

The recess having expired, the House was called to order by the Speaker at 2 p.m.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. James David Ford, D.D., offered the following prayer:

O loving God, we come together on this day and we recount with thanksgiving all the blessings You have bestowed upon Your people. Yet, we are painfully aware of the suffering of people whose lives have been devastated and whose families have been destroyed. We especially remember with our thoughts and prayers the people of Oklahoma City who have suffered such distress and misery. We pray that Your good spirit that supports and gives hope even in tragedy will be with them in their grief and give healing to their souls. We pray also for all those valiant people who have done so much to rescue those in need and who have risked their own lives to save others. May Your peace, gracious God, that passes all human understanding, be with all Your people, this day and every day, we pray. Amen.

THE JOURNAL

The SPEAKER. The Chair has examined the Journal of the last day's proceedings and announces to the House his approval thereof.

Pursuant to clause 1, rule I, the Journal stands approved.
